

---

IMPALILA

Named after Impalila Island which means 'the far away place'.

Contacts	Impalila Conservancy, P.O. Box 2435, Ngweze Tel: 066-252666  Chairperson: Martin Ngonga 081 355 7321, impalilaconservancy@gmail.com
Registered	December 2005
Region	Zambezi
Area	73
Approximate population	968
Geographical features	The island is bounded by the Zambezi and Chobe Rivers. Average annual rainfall is over 600 mm.
Particular features	Prominent baobab tree from which people can view four countries bordering each other.
Main wildlife resources	Elephant, buffalo, crocodile, hippo, waterbuck, common impala, lechwe, sitatunga, warthog, bushbuck, interesting bird life, tiger fish, catfish, various tilapia fish species.
Enterprises	Joint-venture tourism agreement with Impalila Island Lodge; tourism activities include birding, fishing, village visits and crafts; trophy hunting.
Management	Management Committee of five men and four women; Executive Committee of two men and four women includes a representative of the traditional authority as advisor; staff of a Manager, a Secretary, a Treasurer, four Community Game Rangers, two Community Resource Monitors, three Tour Guides and a Watchman; wildlife monitoring using annual count on foot and Event Book monitoring system.

---