
N#A-JAQNA

Named after the Buffalo Thorn Tree

Contacts	N#a-Jaqna Conservancy, P.O Box 1049, Grootfontein Tel: 067-245047 Chairperson: Mrs Sara Zungu 0816279846, najagnacnservancy@gmail.com Manager: Mr Frans Gameb Secretary: Ms Maria Hausiku
Registered	July 2003
Region	Otjozondjupa
Area	9,120
Approximate population	3,894
Geographical features	Average annual rainfall of 400-450 mm. Kalahari sands cover flat landscape of broadleaf and acacia woodland.
Particular features	Traditional culture of San people.
Main wildlife resources	Elephant, leopard, eland, duiker, steenbok, gemsbok, kudu, giraffe, black-backed jackal, cheetah, warthog, spotted hyaena.
Enterprises	Omatako Valley Rest Camp (community rest camp); Grashoek Cultural Village; crafts; trophy hunting; own-use hunting; dry wood harvesting project; devil's claw harvesting.
Management	Management Committee of eight men and four women; additional members from traditional authority; no staff at present; two game guards trained in trophy hunting, monitoring and data collection techniques; wildlife monitoring using Event Book monitoring system.
