

INTEGRATED RURAL DEVELOPMENT AND NATURE CONSERVATION LINKING CONSERVATION TO DEVELOPMENT - STRENGTHENING CIVIL SOCIETY

IRDNC seeks to employ:

Cluster Coordinator: Bwabwata National Park

Main roles:

- Support to Kyaramacan Association, representing the residents of the Park, in the fields of; Governance and Financial Management, Business and Enterprise Development and Natural Resource Management
- Complex Development and Management Support
- Technical support in the fields of Livelihood Support and Traditional Knowledge
- Managing the Cluster and reporting to management
- Cooperation with government, key role-players and other collaborative partners

The successful candidate's profile:

- Professional qualification and experience in community conservation and development
- Highly literate in written English
- A strong team player able to work synergistically within a team and with multiple partners
- Experience in assisting community-based organisations in the relevant fields of support and implementing programmes and work plans and complying with policies, procedures and meeting set goals and targets
- Ability to design and deliver educational/training programmes for staff and communities
- Experience supporting marginalised communities with Livelihood and Food Security projects
- Results orientated with strong management skills
- A self-motivated, responsible problem solver that achieves results with minimal supervision
- Should have cultural sensitivity, integrity and reliability
- Ability to generate innovative approaches, prepare donor proposals and produce reports of a high standard

This position will be based in Bwabwata National Park.

Emailed applications with CV and contactable references to: winettej@irdnc.org.na. Only qualifying short-listed applicants will receive replies. Deadline for submissions – 15 April 2020